IN THE EVENT OF A BREAKDOWN

- Check your location as precisely as possible
- Call your breakdown service provider for assistance. They should then guide you through the incident.
- If you feel that you are in a dangerous or vulnerable position, or that your vehicle may be causing an obstruction or danger to other road users, you can contact the local Police on 101 or the Highways Agency on 0300 1235000, making it clear that you have already arranged assistance with your breakdown provider.

IN THE EVENT OF AN ACCIDENT

- Check your location as precisely as possible
- Contact the emergency services 999. If a horse is trapped, ask for fire and rescue, and, a vet. They will guide you through the incident and take control once they are on scene.
- Contact your insurance company

Whilst awaiting assistance, try to avoid entering the horse compartments of your vehicle unless absolutely necessary
